5 Stopping your premiums or your policy

What happens if you stop paying premiums or if you want to stop your policy entirely?

Your Termsurance plan gives you such valuable protection that we urge you to pay all premiums promptly as they are due. We understand though that your circumstances and priorities can change and that you may at some time wish to stop paying your premiums or even stop your plan entirely.

A Pure Protection Option

To keep your cover in place you must pay all premiums promptly as they are due. We allow a grace period of 30 days (yearly, half yearly and quarterly payment modes) or 15 days (monthly payment mode) following the premium due date during which we will keep you covered even if you have not paid your premium. If you haven't paid your premium by the end of the grace period, your policy will lapse and we will not pay any benefits from then on.

If you have chosen to pay a single premium, then of course no further premiums are due. If you then no longer want your plan, you may surrender it, in which case we will pay you a special surrender value in settlement. We do not guarantee this surrender value and we can change it at any time subject to IRDAI approval.

Pure Protection Option:

There is no surrender value for the regular premium payment option. For single pay plans a Special Surrender Value (SSV) shall be paid which is not guaranteed and may change at any time, subject to the prior approval of the IRDAI.

B Return of Premium on Maturity Option

Regular Premium Payment

To keep your cover in place you must pay all premiums promptly as they fall due. We allow a grace period of 30 days (yearly, half yearly and quarterly payment modes) or 15 days (monthly payment mode) following the premium due date during which we will keep you covered even if you have not paid your premium. For regular premium payment option, paid up value shall become payable only after completion of first policy year, provided one full year premium has been received. If the policy has not become paid up and if you haven't paid your premium by the end of grace period, your policy will lapse and we will not pay any benefits from then on. Once the policy become paid up , we will make your plan paid up for a reduced sum assured on death and reduced return of premium benefits on survival to maturity.

We will calculate the reduced paid up benefits using the following formulae:

Reduced paid up sum assured on death

$$= \frac{\text{Policy duration in complete years}}{\text{Policy term}} \times \text{sum assured}$$

Reduced return of premium benefit on maturity date

$$= \frac{\text{Policy duration in complete years}}{\text{Policy term}} \times \text{total premiums paid*}$$

*Total Premiums Paid means total of all the premiums paid under the base product, excluding any extra premium and taxes, if collected explicitly.

Reduced Surrender Value:

The surrender value for a paid up policy is higher of Guaranteed Surrender Value (GSV) for a paid-up policy and Special Surrender Value (SSV) for a paid-up policy.

Surrender Value

In case you do not wish to continue the policy, you have an option to surrender. For regular premium payment option after completion of first policy year, provided one full year premium has been received., you may choose to surrender your plan, in which case we will pay you a surrender value in settlement. We will pay you a surrender value which will be higher of the Guaranteed Surrender Value (GSV) or Special Surrender Value (SSV).

Guaranteed Surrender Value is calculated as:

Total premiums paid till date of surrender*Guaranteed Surrender Value Factor.
