Master Policyholder/Member can attach the Rider Cover to their Base Cover at:

- Inception of base product or,
- On anniversary of base product

Master Policyholder/Member will select the Rider Cover Term and Rider Premium Payment Term at inception of rider cover.

The following Rider Benefits are offered:

D. Comprehensive Benefit

Master Policyholder can customize the rider coverage by either choosing:

- Death Benefit or Disability Benefit or EMI Support Benefit or Comprehensive Benefit, on a standalone basis
- Or a combination of Death Benefit and Disability Benefit

Rider benefit shall be determined by multiplying the ratio of Rider Sum Assured to Base Sum Assured with the Death Benefit under the base cover.

Rider Benefits

A DEATH BENEFIT

If Death Benefit is chosen, the Master Policyholder/Member shall choose a Rider Death Sum Assured at inception of the rider cover subject to the rider boundary conditions.

Death Benefit can only be chosen as an Additional benefit where the Accidental Death Benefit will be paid in addition to the base cover benefit.

Any one from the following options can be opted as Death Benefit under the rider.

a) Accidental Death Benefit (ADB):
On Accidental Death of the assured member, Rider Death Benefit as per Schedule shall be payable in lumpsum, provided the rider cover is in force.

Upon payment of Rider Death benefit, the rider cover shall terminate.

b) Accidental Death Benefit Plus (ADB Plus):
On Accidental Death of the assured member due to causes other than Airplane Accident, Rider Death Benefit as per Schedule shall be payable in lumpsum, provided the rider cover is in force.

In case of Accidental Death of the assured member due to Airplane Accident, benefit equal to 200% of Rider Death Sum Assured as per Scheduleshall be payable in lumpsum, provided the rider cover is in force.

Upon payment of Rider Death benefit, the rider cover shall terminate.

B DISABILITY BENEFIT

If Disability Benefit is chosen, the Master Policyholder/Member shall choose a Rider Disability Sum Assured at inception of the rider cover subject to the rider boundary conditions.

Where Disability Benefit is chosen on a standalone basis, it can be opted either as an Additional or Accelerated benefit:

- If Accelerated Benefit is chosen: The Disability Benefit will be paid as an accelerated benefit, reducing the base cover benefit accordingly.
- If Additional Benefit is chosen: The Disability Benefit will be paid in addition to the base cover benefit.

Where Disability Benefit is chosen in combination with Death Benefit, it can be opted only as an Accelerated benefit to Rider Death Benefit.

Any one from the following options can be opted as Disability Benefit under the rider.

a) Permanent Disability Benefit (PDB):
If the assured member makes a claim, on occurrence of Accidental Total & Permanent Disability, of Rider Disability Benefit as per the Schedule shall be payable in lumpsum, provided the rider cover is in force.

If Disability Benefit is chosen on a standalone basis, upon payment of benefit on occurrence of ATPD, the rider cover shall terminate.

If PDB Plus is selected, the benefit payable on occurrence of APPD will always accelerate benefit payable on occurrence of ATPD. This implies that if,

- Assured member has already claimed benefit on occurrence of APPD before claiming the benefit payable on occurrence of Accidental Total and Permanent Disability (ATPD) then balance 50% of Rider Disability Benefit shall be payable on occurrence of ATPD.

If both Death Benefit and Disability Benefit are selected at inception, the Rider Disability Sum Assured will accelerate the Rider Death Sum Assured. This implies that if,

- If any Disability Benefit has not been claimed before claiming the Death Benefit then full Death Benefit (as applicable), shall be payable on occurrence of an Accidental Death.
- If Disability Benefit has been claimed before claiming the Death Benefit then 100% of Death Benefit less Disability Benefit already paid as on the latest date of claim intimation, shall be payable.

C EMI SUPPORT BENEFIT

If EMI Support Benefit is chosen, Rider Disability Sum Assured will be equal to the sum of 60 months of Equated Monthly Instalments (EMIs) applicable at inception of rider cover in the underlying loan covered by the base product.

EMI Support Benefit can only be attached with the base product providing credit protection.

EMI Support Benefit shall be an Additional benefit only where the EMI Support Benefit will be paid in addition to the base cover benefit.

If the assured member makes a valid claim (as per scheme rules) on occurrence of ATPD provided the rider cover is in force, then benefit equal to Rider Disability Sum Assured divided by 60 shall be payable for next 60 months starting from date of payment of EMI falling on or immediately after the date of event.

On payment of the last instalment of the Rider Disability Sum Assured, the rider cover shall terminate.

Where the payout for the base plan is made directly to the loan account, the Rider EMI payout will also be paid directly to the loan account. Once the loan is fully repaid, any remaining amount from the Rider Sum Assured will be paid to the Member. Additionally, the EMI payout may extend beyond the policy term if necessary to settle the remaining Rider Sum Assured.

D COMPREHENSIVE BENEFIT

If Comprehensive Benefit is chosen, the Master Policyholder/Member shall choose a Rider Comprehensive Sum Assured at inception of the rider cover subject to the rider boundary conditions.
