Waiting period is not applicable for disability due to Accident.

PART C

1. Benefits under the policy

1.1 Risk Cover Benefit

Under IndiaFirst Life Group Disability Rider there are 3 benefit options, as mentioned below. Master policyholder / Member can choose any one of the benefit options on the Rider Policy Commencement Date or on the Entry Date, as applicable. Rider Sum Insured for below benefit options cannot exceed the sum insured under Base Policy. The Rider Policy will provide only those benefit options which are absent from the cover under the Base Policy.

I. Accidental Total Permanent Disability (ATPD) Benefit
II. Total Permanent Disability due to Accident and/ or Illness (TPD) Benefit
III. Partial Permanent Disability due to Accident and/ or Illness (PPD) Benefit

Benefits payable are as below:

I. Accidental Total Permanent Disability (ATPD) Benefit

If the member has suffered Accidental Total and Permanent Disability during the Rider Cover term , the member will receive a lump sum benefit equal to rider Sum Insured.

II. Total Permanent Disability due to Accident and/ or Illness Benefit

If the member is has suffered Total and Permanent Disability as a result of an accident and/or illness during the Rider Cover term , the member will receive a lump sum benefit equal to rider Sum Insured.

Total and Permanent Disability should occur within 90 days of the accident or Illness independent of any other causes from the date of the Accident or Illness, as the case may be.

The insurer will have the right to evaluate the member to confirm total and permanent disability due to Accident and/or Illness.

III. Partial Permanent Disability due to Accident and/ or Illness (PPD) Benefit

If the member has suffered Partial and Permanent Disability as a result of an accident or illness during Rider Cover term , the member will receive a lump sum benefit equal to 50% of rider Sum Insured on first event and the remaining 50% of rider Sum Insured on second event.

In order for opted benefit to be payable, such disability (Partial and Permanent Disability) must have persisted for a period of at least 180 days and must in opinion of a specialized medical practitioner, appointed by the company, be deemed permanent.

If the Partial and Permanent Disability is due to an accident/ injury, then the claim needs to be submitted within 90 days of such accident/ injury. However, if there is a valid reason of late claim reporting then same may be verified on case to case basis and we will process the claim accordingly.

In case of physical severance of the hand at or above the wrist or foot at or above the ankle joint the 180 days deferment period shall not be applicable.

Benefit payable will be percentage of the opted Sum Insured as per the nature of disability sustained. The percentages payable depending on the nature of disability are mentioned in the table below:

Loss of hearing-both ears	50%
Loss of speech	50%
Loss of sight of one eye	50%
Loss of one hand	50%
Loss of one foot	50%

In case of credit linked policies wherein the cover under the Base Policy is not overlapping with the Rider Policy, rider benefit will be applicable for:

i. primary life or main borrower under 100% first claim for joint life cover or
ii. all co-borrowers under loan sharing basis.

In case of a claim for any life under co-sharing arrangement, rider cover for the member for whom the benefits under this Rider Policy has already been paid, the Rider Cover will cease and cannot be renewed further. However, rider cover for remaining co-borrower(s) will continue and the future rider premium only for the remaining co-borrowers if any will be payable as per the terms and conditions of the rider policy.

1.2 Maturity benefit

No maturity benefit will be payable under this policy.

2. Paid-Up benefits

No Paid-Up benefits will be payable under this policy.

3. Surrender Benefit

Under One-year renewable Group Term Insurance products: There is no surrender value.

- Under Group Credit Life Insurance products :

o Single Premium: Surrender value is acquired immediately. The surrender value for Single Premium in respect of an individual member will be calculated as 50% X Single Premium X {1 – M / P}; Where M = Elapsed months since Member Risk Commencement Date & P = Cover term in month

o Limited Premium: Termination / Surrender value is acquired immediately. The termination / Surrender value for Limited Premium in respect of an individual member will be calculated as 50% X Premiums Paid X {1 – M / P}X (Premiums Paid/ Total Premiums payable under the policy)

o Regular premium: There is no surrender value.

In case of surrender of the group rider policy, the member will get an option to continue the cover as per original COI issued at inception of Rider Cover till the end of the rider cover term as mentioned in the COI . This will be consistent with base policy.

4. Grace Period

Grace period means the specified period of time immediately following the premium due date during which a payment can be made to renew or continue a policy in force without loss of continuity benefits such as waiting period and coverage of pre-existing diseases. If a valid claim has occurred during grace period, then rider Sum Insured will be paid after deducting due premium. Grace period terms and conditions will be applicable under Regular/ Limited premium payment options. The grace period will be same as per the base policy. In case you do not pay premiums within the Grace Period, rider policy will lapse without acquiring any benefits subject to surrender benefit as mentioned.

5. Premium Payment

Regular Premiums can be paid to us either by monthly/ quarterly/ half yearly/ yearly payment mode, as selected by you for the base policy. The Premiums should be paid on or before the due dates to avoid lapsation of this Rider Policy. You are provided a Grace Period of 15 days under monthly mode and 30 days for other premium payment modes, in case you miss your due premium on the due dates. Grace period terms and conditions will be applicable under Regular/ Limited premium payment options.

In policies, where the premium is paid by Members through the Master Policyholder , if the Master Policyholder(MPH) has collected the premium from the member before the completion of grace period and has not remitted the same to us (due to any reason), we will continue to provide coverage to that member if the member can prove that he/she had paid the premium and secured a proper receipt leading the member to believe that he/she was duly insured.

Master Policyholder/ Members are advised not to pay insurance premium (initial or renewal) through cash or bearer instrument to any insurance Broker or IndiaFirst Life insurance Advisors /Employees/ Insurance Agents. Insurance Brokers or IndiaFirst Life Insurance Advisors/ Employees / Insurance Agents are not authorized to receive the premium in cash or bearer instrument. Handing over cash or bearer instrument to any insurance Broker or any IndiaFirst Life Insurance Advisor / Employee/ Insurance Agents is solely at Your own risk and the Company in no way be held responsible for any loss in this regard.

Insurance premium cheques must be drawn only in favour of IndiaFirst Life Insurance Company Ltd. (Proposal No. for first premium or Policy No. for renewal premium should be written behind the cheque). Any Cheque payment made shall be deemed to be received by IndiaFirst Life Insurance Company Ltd. only when the same has been received by any office of IndiaFirst Life Insurance Company Ltd. and after an official receipt is issued by the Company.

PART D

6. Reviving your Lapsed Policy

If due Rider Premiums are not paid within the Grace Period, the Rider Policy will lapse without acquiring any benefit after the expiry of Grace Period.

You may revive the Rider Policy within the Revival Period which is a period of 5 years from the due date of first unpaid regular premium by:

i. submitting a written request for revival of the lapsed rider policy;

ii. paying all unpaid due Premiums without any interest/Late Fees; and

iii. providing a declaration of good health and undergoing a medical examination at your own cost, if needed.

A lapsed rider policy will only be revived along with all its benefits in accordance with our board approved underwriting policy. If rider policy is in lapsed status and not revived within revival period, Rider Policy will be terminated and no benefit will be paid, subject to surrender benefits as given in Part C of this Rider Policy. If rider is opted out from base policy, then inclusion of the rider shall be as per our Underwriting Policy. The revival period will be same as per the base policy.

7. Free Look Period

Nomination of a life insurance Policy may be made in accordance with Section 39 of the Insurance Act, 1938 as amended from time to timeor any other Regulation/Circular as issued by the Authority. A simplified version of Section 39 is provided below:

1) The Policyholder of a life insurance on his own life shall nominate a person or persons to whom money secured by the Policy shall be paid in the event of his death. Nomination is mandatory to facilitate payment of claim amount in case of death of life assured

2) Where the nominee is a minor, the Policyholder shall appoint any person in the manner laid down by the insurer to receive the money secured by the Policy in the event of Policyholder's death during the minority of the nominee.
3) Nomination may be incorporated in the text of the Policy itself or may be endorsed on the Policy communicated to the insurer and can be registered by the insurer in the records relating to the Policy.
4) Nomination can be changed at any time before Policy matures, by an endorsement or a further endorsement or a will as the case may be.
5) A notice in writing of Change of nomination must be delivered to the insurer Otherwise, insurer will not be liable for any payment under the Policy made bonafide by the insured to the nominee unless it is mentioned in the text of the Policy or in the registered records of the insurer.
6) Fee for registering cancellation or change in the nomination may be required to be paid to the insurer which shall not exceed INR 100 (INR One hundred only) on each occasion or as may be specified by the Authority through Regulations.
7) On receipt of notice with fee, the insurer should grant a written acknowledgement to the Policyholder of having registered a nomination or change thereof.
8) A transfer or assignment made in accordance with Section 38 shall automatically cancel the nomination except in case of assignment to the insurer or other transferee or assignee for purpose of loan or against security or its reassignment after repayment. In such case, the nomination will not get cancelled to the extent of insurer's or transferee's or assignee's interest in the Policy. The nomination will get revived on repayment of the loan.
9) The right of any creditor to be paid out of the proceeds of any Policy of life insurance shall not be affected by the nomination.
10) In case of nomination by Policyholder whose life is insured, if the nominees die before the Policyholder, the proceeds are payable to Policyholder or his heirs or legal representatives or holder of succession certificate.
11) In case nominee(s) survive the person whose life is insured, the amount secured by the Policy shall be paid to such survivor(s).
12) Where the Policyholder whose life is insured nominates his (a) parents or (b) spouse or (c) children or (d) spouse and children (e) or any of them; the nominees are beneficially entitled to the amount payable by the insurer to the Policyholder unless it is proved that Policyholder could not have conferred such beneficial title on the nominee having regard to the nature of his title.
13) If nominee(s) die after the Policyholder but before his share of the amount secured under the Policy is paid, the share of the expired nominee(s) shall be payable to the heirs or legal representative of the nominee or holder of succession certificate of such nominee(s).
14) The provisions of sub-section 7 and 8 (13 and 14 above) shall apply to all life insurance policies maturing for payment after the commencement of Insurance Laws (Amendment) Act, 2015 (i.e. 23.03.2015).
15) If Policyholder dies after maturity but the proceeds and benefit of the Policy has not been paid to him because of his death, his nominee(s) shall be entitled to the proceeds and benefit of the Policy.
16) The provisions of Section 39 are not applicable to any life insurance Policy to which Section 6 of Married Women's Property Act, 1874 applies or has at any time applied except where before or Insurance Laws (Amendment) Act, 2015, a nomination is made in favour of spouse or children or spouse and children whether or not on the face of the Policy it is mentioned that it is made under Section 39. Where nomination is intended to be made to spouse or children or spouse and children under Section 6 of MWP Act, it should be specifically mentioned on the Policy. In such a case only, the provisions of Section 39 will not apply.

[Disclaimer: This is not the exact text of Section 39 of the Insurance Act, 1938 and only a simplified version prepared for general information. Policyholders are advised to refer to the Insurance Act, 1938 and any other applicable Regulation/Circulars issued by the Authority for complete and accurate details.]

13. Assignment shall be governed as per section 38 of the Insurance Act, 1938 as amended from time to time.

Assignment or transfer of a Policy should be in accordance with Section 38 of the Insurance Act, 1938 as amended from time to time and any other applicable Regulation/Circulars issued by the Authority. A simplified version of the provisions of Section 38 is provided below:

1) This Policy may be transferred/assigned, wholly or in part, with or without consideration.
2) An Assignment may be effected in a Policy by an endorsement upon the Policy itself or by a separate instrument under notice to the Insurer.
3) The instrument of assignment should indicate the fact of transfer or assignment and the reasons for the assignment or transfer, antecedents of the assignee and terms on which assignment is made.
4) The assignment must be signed by the transferor or assignor or duly authorized agent and attested by at least one witness.
5) The transfer or assignment shall not be operative as against an insurer until a notice in writing of the transfer or assignment and either the said endorsement or instrument itself or copy there of certified to be correct by both transferor and transferee or their duly authorized agents have been delivered to the insurer.
6) Fee for granting a written acknowledgement of the receipt of notice of assignment or transfer assignment may require to be paid to the insurer which shall not exceed INR 100 (INR One hundred only) or as may be specified by the Authority

7) On receipt of notice with fee, the insurer should Grant a written acknowledgement of receipt of notice. Such notice shall be conclusive evidence against the insurer of duly receiving the notice.

8) If the insurer maintains one or more places of business, such notices shall be delivered only at the place where the Policy is being serviced.

9) The insurer may accept or decline to act upon any transfer or assignment or endorsement, if it has sufficient reasons to believe that it is (a) not bonafide or (b) not in the interest of the Policyholder or (c) not in public interest or (d) is for the purpose of trading of the insurance Policy.

10) Before refusing to act upon endorsement, the Insurer should record the reasons in writing and communicate the same in writing to Policyholder within 30 days from the date of Policyholder giving a notice of transfer or assignment.

11) In case of refusal to act upon the endorsement by the Insurer, any person aggrieved by the refusal may prefer a claim to IRDAI within 30 days of receipt of the refusal letter from the Insurer.

12) The priority of claims of persons interested in an insurance Policy would depend on the date on which the notices of assignment or transfer is delivered to the insurer; where there are more than one instruments of transfer or assignment, the priority will depend on dates of delivery of such notices. Any dispute in this regard as to priority should be referred to Authority.

13) Every assignment or transfer shall be deemed to be absolute assignment or transfer and the assignee or transferee shall be deemed to be absolute assignee or transferee, except

a. where assignment or transfer is subject to terms and conditions of transfer or assignment OR

b. where the transfer or assignment is made upon condition that

i. the proceeds under the Policy shall become payable to Policyholder or nominee(s) in the event of assignee or transferee dying before the insured OR

ii. the insured surviving the term of the Policy.

Such conditional assignee will not be entitled to obtain a loan on Policy or surrender the Policy. This provision will prevail notwithstanding any law or custom having force of law which is contrary to the above position.

14) In other cases, the insurer shall, subject to terms and conditions of assignment, recognize the transferee or assignee named in the notice as the absolute transferee or assignee and such person

a. shall be subject to all liabilities and equities to which the transferor or assignor was subject to at the date of transfer or assignment and

b. may institute any proceedings in relation to the Policy

c. obtain loan under the Policy or surrender the Policy without obtaining the consent of the transferor or assignor or making him a party to the proceedings

15) Any rights and remedies of an assignee or transferee of a life insurance Policy under an assignment or transfer effected before commencement of the Insurance Laws (Amendment) Act, 2015 shall not be affected by this section.

[Disclaimer: This is not the exact text of Section 38 of the Insurance Act, 1938 and only a simplified version prepared for general information. Policyholders are advised to refer to the Insurance Act, 1938 and any other applicable Regulation/Circulars issued by the Authority for complete and accurate details.]

15. Change of Address

You are required to inform us in writing, about any change in Your/ Member's / Nominee's address with address proof. This will ensure that our correspondence reaches You// Member / the Nominee without any delay. We will not be liable on account of your failure to up-date your current address in our records or registering an address with us which is incorrect.

16. Fraud and Mis-statement

The Age of the Life Assured is derived basis the declaration in the Proposal Form. Due to misstatement of Age if You have paid less Premium(s) than what was payable for the correct Age, We will charge and You the difference in Premium since the Policy Commencement Date without interest or deduct the same from the Policy benefit payable. If the date of birth of the Life Assured has been misstated resulting in higher Premium(s) paid by You than what was payable for the correct Age, We will refund the excess Premiums without any interest. If at the correct Age, the Life Assured was not insurable according to Our requirements, We reserve the right to refund the Premiums paid till date post deduction of any relevant cost, expenses or charges as applicable and terminate the Policy in accordance with Section 45 of the Insurance Act, 1938, as amended from time to time.

Section 45 of the Insurance Act, 1938 as amended from time to time:

Fraud and Mis-statement shall be dealt as per the provisions of S.45 of Insurance Act, 1938. A simplified version of the provisions of S. 45 is provided below:

1. No Policy of Life Insurance shall be called in question on any ground whatsoever after expiry of 3 years from
   a. the date of issuance of Policy or
   b. the date of commencement of risk or
   c. the date of revival of Policy or
   d. the date of rider to the Policy whichever is later.
2. On the ground of fraud, a Policy of Life Insurance may be called in question within 3 years from
   a. the date of issuance of Policy or
   b. the date of commencement of risk or
   c. the date of revival of Policy or
   d. the date of rider to the Policy whichever is later.

   For this, the insurer should communicate in writing to the insured or legal representative or nominee or assignees of insured, as applicable, mentioning the ground and materials on which such decision is based.
3. Fraud means any of the following acts committed by insured or by his agent, with the intent to deceive the insurer or to induce the insurer to issue a life insurance Policy:
   a. The suggestion, as a fact of that which is not true and which the insured does not believe to be true;
   b. The active concealment of a fact by the insured having knowledge or belief of the fact;
   c. Any other act fitted to deceive; and
   d. Any such act or omission as the law specifically declares to be fraudulent.
4. Mere silence is not fraud unless, depending on circumstances of the case, it is the duty of the insured or his agent keeping silence to speak or silence is in itself equivalent to speak.
5. No Insurer shall repudiate a life insurance Policy on the ground of Fraud, if the Insured / beneficiary can prove that the misstatement was true to the best of his knowledge and there was no deliberate intention to suppress the fact or that such mis-statement of or suppression of material fact are within the knowledge of the insurer. Onus of disproving is upon the Policyholder, if alive, or beneficiaries.
6. Life insurance Policy can be called in question within 3 years on the ground that any statement of or suppression of a fact material to expectancy of life of the insured was incorrectly made in the proposal or other document basis which Policy was issued or revived or rider issued. For this, the insurer should communicate in writing to the insured or legal representative or nominee or assignees of insured, as applicable, mentioning the ground and materials on which decision to repudiate the Policy of life insurance is based.
7. In case repudiation is on ground of mis-statement and not on fraud, the premium collected on Policy till the date of repudiation shall be paid to the insured or legal representative or nominee or assignees of insured, within a period of 90 days from the date of repudiation.
8. Fact shall not be considered material unless it has a direct bearing on the risk undertaken by the insurer. The onus is on insurer to show that if the insurer had been aware of the said fact, no life insurance Policy would have been issued to the insured.
9. The insurer can call for proof of age at any time if he is entitled to do so and no Policy shall be deemed to be called in question merely because the terms of the Policy are adjusted on subsequent proof of age of life insured. So, this Section will not be applicable for questioning age or adjustment based on proof of age submitted subsequently.
